Make Us Your Patient Centered Medical Home

It is important to have an established primary care provider and care team who can serve as your child's "medical home".

Your primary care provider will learn your child's medical history, and provide you with quality care because they know more about them. They will become a partner in your child's health care. Your primary care provider will offer well child checkups and preventative care, treat any ongoing medical conditions that your child might have, and take care of them when they are ill.

If your child does need to see a specialist, your primary care provider will work with them to ensure you are getting the best possible care.
